

Project Management in Libraries

Understanding our capability and building a community

David Morgan
Metadata, Discovery & Analytics Coordinator
Royal Holloway, University of London

“We are all project managers now”

Understanding our capability

- How formally do we run our projects?
- What training do we have, or think we need?
- What technology is at our disposal, and do we use it (or need it)?
- What do you want to know? Let me know!

Building a community
